Phi Kappa Psi Fraternity Executive Director Shawn M. Collinsworth today announced the hiring of Kevin J. Marks Valparaiso '92 as the Fraternity's new Director of Alumni Services. Brother Marks' employment will commence on May 3rd.

"Brother Marks brings a wealth of experience to the position," Collinsworth said. "Brothers who have had the pleasure of working with Kevin as a volunteer know of his strong passion for the Fraternity and his knowledge of what it takes to be successful on all fronts of alumni volunteerism."

Prior to taking this position, Kevin has served as the Chapter Advisor to the men of the Indiana Epsilon Chapter at Valparaiso University for the past five years, earning the Advisor of the Year award by the university. Residing in Chicago, he has currently been serving as Treasurer of the Chicago Alumni Association. He was previously Treasurer of the Ind. "This position requires work with our three main areas of alumni focus: advisory committees, house corporations and alumni associations," Collinsworth added. "With Kevin's alumni experiences, project management background, and personal drive, I am confident he is going to continue to improve and grow our alumni resources within the national organization."

The start of a new career at Phi Psi marks a change in profession for Brother Marks. An engineer by trade, Kevin worked in civil engineering for over a decade, most recently for V3 Companies of Woodridge, Ill. as a Senior Project Engineer / Project Manager.

Once in the office, Kevin will immediately take over several key events and programs for Phi Kappa Psi, including New Volunteer Orientation, Alumni Association Accreditation, Founders Day and volunteer growth. Upon May 3rd, he will be available at KJM@phikappapsi.com.
